

Online Masterclass with Geoff Johnson
'Sensational Sarcodes Revisited'
Saturday 26 February 2022, 10 - 4.30 pm

In a search for the origins of chronic disease Geoff proved testosterone, progesterone, luteinising and gonadotrophin releasing hormones and finally pineal gland. Archetypal remedies were revealed which are now being used. Ancient myths were confirmed. The sensation of the sarcodes was revealed. This Masterclass will revise what was learned, and then deepen the understanding of the sensation by looking at a number of different sarcodes through successful cases.
